JETS DIRECTORS

The New York Jets Directors greeted the challenge of the "new" National Football League with high hopes in 1970, but, as fate would have it, the team was plagued by a rash of injuries during a season that saw the club compile a 4-10 mark, the poorest in the Jets 11-year history. But "pride" remained the guide word for the 1970 season, and moved the team to surprising upset wins over Minnesota and Los Angeles despite injuries to key personnel.

The Jets directors have known success and frustration. They appointed Weeb Ewbank in 1963 to build a team and their foresight paid off. The Jets captured a World Championship (1968), an AFL title (1968), and two Eastern Division titles (1968 and 1969). Quite a remarkable transition from the bankrupt team that three of the original backers Philip H. Iselin, Townsend B. Martin, and Leon Hess acquired in 1963.

The New York Jets organization is optimistic about the 1971 campaign. Weeb Ewbank and his staff have completed a sound draft, and with the added experience that veteran personnel acquired in 1970, the team figures to be in the thick of the race for Super Bowl VI. The Jets directors can promise the loyal fans of the team a most promising future.

PHILIP H. ISELIN, President and Chief Executive Officer, is the president of the Korell Company and president and Chairman of the Board of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club. The popular Iselin has had an extensive background in racing, and enjoys the unique distinction of heading two major sporting concerns. Mr. Iselin lives in Oceanport, N.J. and in 1969 was the recipient of an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters by Monmouth College (N. J.) for his contribution to the shore area.

TOWNSEND B. MARTIN, Chairman of the Board, is an internationally-known owner and breeder of thoroughbred race horses and a member of the Jockey Club. Mr. Martin is also engaged in the investment banking business with Bessemer Securities Corp. in New York City. An original backer of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club in 1946, he now serves on its Board of Directors.

LEON HESS, Vice President and Treasurer, is Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Amerada Hess Corp., one of the great integrated oil companies in the world. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club, the American Broadcasting Corporation and the New Jersey National Bank and Trust Company, among others.

Head Coach & General Manager

Success has followed Weeb Ewbank wherever he has gone as a professional football coach. Now entering his 18th year as a head coach, second only to Paul Brown in terms of service, he can look back upon three World Championships, over 100 pro victories, and the title of "Coach of the Decade" in the old American Football League.

Ewbank, head coach and general manager, guided the AFL Jets to the professional football championship of the world in 1968 and won NFL titles back-to-back in 1958 and 1959 as coach of the Baltimore Colts, the team the Jets defeated for the crown. His feat with the Jets made him the only coach in history to win world championships in both leagues. In the opening game of the 1969 campaign, Ewbank recorded his 100th coaching triumph when the Jets defeated Buffalo, and the total now stands at 113.

Weeb began his career as an assistant at his alma mater, Miami University of Ohio, and spent 14 seasons there. In 1959 he was presented with an honorary Doctorate from Miami and in February of 1969 he was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame.

In 1943 he joined Paul Brown at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station as an assistant. At the end of the war, Weeb became backfield coach at Brown University and head basketball coach for the Bruins. After one season there he moved on to Washington University in St. Louis as head grid coach. In two seasons he brought the Maroons their finest record in 30 years, compiling a 14-4 record, including a 9-1 mark in 1948. While there, Weeb also acquired a son-in-law—Charlie Winner, one of his players, married his daughter. Winner, formerly head coach of the St. Louis Cardinals, is now an assistant coach for the Washington Redskins.

In 1949, Ewbank entered the pros by rejoining Paul Brown and the Cleveland Browns, serving as line coach. During the next four years, the Browns dominated pro football, winning the All-America Conference title, then taking the NFL championship in 1950 and Eastern Division pennants in 1951-52-53.

Ewbank publicly exhibited his brilliant managerial talents when he moved to Baltimore in 1954. He took a team that was beset with disorganization and within six years produced two NFL championships. Among the many stars developed by Ewbank at Baltimore were Johnny Unitas, Alan Ameche, Raymond Berry, Lenny Moore, Gino Marchetti, Arthur Donovan, Bill Pellington, Jim Parker and Big Daddy Lipscomb.

In 1963 the New York Jets moved to get Ewbank to lead the struggling AFL franchise on the path to success. Moving carefully to reorganize the team, Ewbank led the Jets for four years before producing a winner for the first time in 1967. Then in 1968 the rebuilding plans came to fruition with the Super Bowl championship.

Through the years, players and assistant coaches who have been under Ewbank have gone on to greater assignments. Three of these associates have become head coaches in pro football. Don McCafferty, who coached with Ewbank, is presently coaching Baltimore, while Don Shula, who played under Ewbank at Baltimore, is the head man at Miami. Clive Rush, Weeb's aide at the Jets, was the head coach of the Boston Patriots. Joe Spencer, former offensive line coach of the Jets, and presently in a similar position at St. Louis, played tackle under Ewbank and Paul Brown at Cleveland. John Sandusky, Joe Thomas, Lou Rymkus, Art Spinney, Jack Patera, Carl Tasseff, Bobby Boyd, Bob Shaw, John Bridgers and Frank Lauterbur are others who have moved ahead after playing or coaching under Ewbank.

Since coming to New York, the 64-year old Ewbank has developed six all-pro (combined AFL-NFL) players—Joe Namath, Gerry Philbin, George Sauer, Jim Turner, Matt Snell and Winston Hill. Don Maynard, Larry Grantham, Dainard Paulson, Dave Herman, Sherman Plunkett, Verlon Biggs and John Elliott are others who have received all-AFL honors under Ewbank. Hill and Elliott were members of the American Conference Pro Bowl squad last year and were all-AFC choices. A trio of these players—Namath, Philbin and Maynard—were selected to the all-time all-AFL team.

As an undergraduate at Miami, Weeb was a quarterback, captain of the baseball team and a forward on the basketball team.

A native of Richmond, Ind., he married the former Lucy Massey, also of Richmond. They have three married daughters all with families.

SHEA STADIUM

Home of the Jets

One of the premier showcases of the National Football League, William A. Shea Stadium is the home of the New York Jets. The multi-colored tiers of seats have housed Jets fans since the club moved from the old Polo Grounds for the 1964 season.

The stadium is at the center of a vast transportation network, which enables fans to arrive by land, sea or air with nearly equal ease. Vehicular traffic utilizes a $111 million complex of parkways, while crowds may also use the I.R.T. Flushing line subway which runs directly to the Willets Point station, only a few steps from Shea. The Long Island Railroad station is within easy walking distance as is the enlarged Flushing Bay Marina. Both Kennedy International and LaGuardia airports are minutes away by taxi.

There are 60,000 seats for Jet football games and all are totally unobstructed by columns or posts. Every seat has a clear view of the field. An ingenious system of seat rotation along railroad tracks allows 10,000 permanent seats to be moved electrically to positions along the sidelines. Over 19,000 seats are on the ground level; 14,000 are on the second tier, while 20,000 more are in the upper deck. Temporary seats, accommodating 5,000 fans are installed at the open end zone of the stadium.

Shea has one of the nation's most modern lighting techniques, with lights running in continuous strips around the cantilevered roof, eliminating all towers except for two banks beyond the endzone.

Every year since 1964 the Jets established AFL attendance records at Shea. An average crowd of 62,917 watched the defending world champions in action in 1969. The Jets also hold the record for the largest single game AFL attendance—63,865—which jammed the stadium to watch New York play Oakland on Nov. 30, 1969. The largest crowd ever to see an event at Shea was the 63,903 which jammed in to see the Jets and Giants on Nov. 1, 1970.

SUPER BOWL III

Defying the oddsmakers (17½ point underdogs) and the strength of traditions, the Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl by rumbling over and through the Baltimore Colts to record a 16-7 triumph. A crowd of 75,377 witnessed the spectacle in Miami's Orange Bowl.

As it was in the AFL championship contest, Joe Namath led the way. The all-pro quarterback directed the Jets' attack flawlessly, driving the team to a second quarter touchdown by Matt Snell (4 yards), and three second-half field goals by Jim Turner. Snell had an outstanding game, gaining 121 yards on 30 carries. The blocking and pass protection offered by the Jets line was superb.

But the defense shared at least as much glory as the offensive unit, intercepting the Colts four times. Randy Beverly picked off two, Jim Hudson and Johnny Sample one each. The defensive unit harrassed Colts' quarterbacks Earl Morrall and Johnny Unitas all afternoon, allowing them to complete only 17 of 41 passes. The one touchdown represented the lowest point output by the powerful Colts in 35 games. The victory was the third in World Championship competition in as many tries for Weeb Ewbank and thus made him the first man ever to coach World Champions in both the AFL and NFL.

1968 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP

The New York Jets climaxed their finest season in history (11-3) by scoring a 27-23 victory over Oakland in the ninth annual American Football League championship game. A championship game record crowd of 62,627 sat in on the chilly and windy proceedings at Shea Stadium and saw Joe Namath toss three touchdown passes (2 to Don Maynard, 1 to Pete Lammons). In addition, Jim Turner, the league's leading scorer, booted two field goals.

Despite the fact that Namath attempted a record 49 passes, the Jets still mixed their attack and Matt Snell and Emerson Boozer gained 71 and 51 yards, respectively, behind fine blocking from the front line.

Oakland, bidding for its second straight crown, was led by the passing arm of Daryle Lamonica, who passed for 401 yards. Their running attack was blunted by the Jets league leading defense which held Hewritt Dixon & Co. to 44 yards. The Raiders carried the game down to the final minutes before Lamonica's lateral pass for Charlie Smith rolled free and was recovered by the Jets' Ralph Baker.

The victory gave head coach Weeb Ewbank the honor of being the first coach to win titles in both NFL and AFL.

1969 AFL PLAYOFF

For the second year in a row the Jets entered the American Football League playoffs as champions of the Eastern Division. Under the playoff scheme devised for 1969 the Big Green had to meet the second-place team in the Western Division in order to advance to the championship game. Thus, on December 20 the Jets entertained Kansas City at Shea Stadium in the first step toward another Super Bowl.

The game was a classic battle of defenses, played in remarkably cold and windy conditions before a sellout 62,977 fans. Through the first three quarters neither team could penetrate for a touchdown and the score stood at 6-3 for the Chiefs. Jim Turner had put New York out in front, 3-0, with a 27-yard field goal the first time the Jets had the ball, but the Chiefs' Jan Stenerud retaliated with a 23-yarder on the next series.

Not until the fourth quarter did the breaks occur. With first and goal to go on the one yardline, three cracks, including a Joe Namath bootleg failed to bring a touchdown. Turner then kicked a 7-yard field goal to tie it 6-6.

Two plays later Kansas City was in the endzone. Len Dawson hit Otis Taylor for a 61-yard pass play to take the Chiefs to the Jet 19. Then Dawson fired the final 19 yards to Gloster Richardson for the only touchdown of the game.

Namath threw 20 passes over the next two Jets series, but a fourth-down incomplection and a Jim Marsalis interception thwarted the Jets and put Kansas City on the road to the World Championship.

THE 1970 JETS GAME BY GAME

CLEVELAND 31, NEW YORK 21—At Municipal Stadium, SRO attendance, 85,703, evening, clear and warm. Three interceptions, one fumble, a 94-yard kickoff return and record penalty yards spelled defeat for the Jets in the ABC-TV Monday night opener. Jets outgained Browns 454 yards to 221, but errors and 161 yards in penalties nullified the offensive display. Matt Snell gained 108 yards rushing, George Sauer 172 receiving on ten catches and Joe Namath was 18 of 31 for 298 yards, but penalties stalled four drives and one was stopped by an interception returned for a TD by Bill Andrews.

The Jets injury jinx struck heavily as running back Matt Snell and right tackle Roger Finnie were sidelined for the season. Snell ruptured his Achilles tendon in the fourth quarter and Finnie exited with a dislocated tendon in the ankle in the first half. To top off a dismal afternoon for the Jets, Buffalo came from behind with two fourth quarter touchdowns to win the game. Two Dennis Shaw passes to Marlin Briscoe and one to Haven Moses led to the touchdowns and Jim Turner missed 3 last quarter field goal tries as the Jets fell below

Bob Griese riddled the Jets defenses for 14 of 24 for 224 yards as the young Dolphins won their first game ever from the Jets after 8 straight losses to the New Yorkers. The Jets had trouble containing the diversified Miami attack, surrendering 117 yards on the ground as well. Paul Warfield and Howard Twilley enjoyed a good night against the Jets, catching 5 for 122 yards and 6 for 73 yards, respectively. Each had a TD. The Jets offense misfired, mustering only 39 yards on the ground. Five rookies were in the lineup for the Jets as George Sauer, Don Maynard and Randy Rasmussen were forced out due to injuries. It was the first time in four seasons the Jets had gone without a touchdown.

In the first rematch of Super Bowl III, the Colts rolled up 17 points in the first 5:25 of the game and then staved off the late challenge of the Jets. New York was down 26-5 and closed to within 7 points, but fell short. Joe Namath set club records for attempts (62) and completions (34), but two of his passes were intercepted and returned for Colt TDs. Five plays from the end of the game, Namath was hit and fell, breaking the navicular bone in his right wrist, sidelining him for the remainder of the year. The Jets gained 398 yards to Baltimore's 254, but offensive errors boosted the Colts. Rookie receiver Ed Bell tied the Jets club record with 12 catches.

Jets 2nd-year quarterback Al Woodall made the first start of his career and hit on 7 of 16 passes, but the Jet offense did not move consistently, gaining only 119 yards. The injury parade continued as Emerson Boozer exited the game in the third quarter with bruised ribs, the third member of the backfield to be injured in four games. The game produced a record low 33 net yards passing for the Jets.

The injury-decimated Jets started Al Woodall, George Nock and Lee White in the first meeting between the two New York rivals. The Jets defense did a heroic first half job, holding the Giants to only 78 yards. The turning point of the game appeared to be a safety scored by the Giants with the Jets leading 10-3 in the 3rd quarter. Fran Tarkenton then struck for two touchdowns in a span of 1:17 late in the quarter to pull the Giants ahead for keeps. The Jets were intercepted twice and lost two fumbles, three of the errors coming in the second half. George Nock paced the Jet attack with 49 yards and a touchdown on the ground. Still another backfield injury—this to Al Woodall—occurred in the fourth quarter and Bob Davis mopped up, taking the Jets to their last touchdown. NEW YORK 31, LOS ANGELES 20—At Memorial Coliseum. SRO attendance, 76,378, sunny and warm. The Jets snapped out of their 6-game slump with one of their most impressive shows of the year, upsetting the 17-point favorite Rams. Woodall came of age as a quarterback, hitting on 10 of 17 for 261 yards and 3 TDs (to Richard Caster, Lee White, George Sauer). The Jets moved out to a 17-7 lead at the half and added TDs in the 3rd and 4th quarters to win going away. The Jets defense, led by Al Atkinson, choked off the Rams running game at 51 yards and started their skein of not allowing a score on the ground for the last six games of the year. Roman Gabriel was intercepted three times, twice by Atkinson, while the poised Woodall suffered no thefts. Cornerback Earlie Thomas was thrown at 11 times and allowed no completions.

NEW YORK 17, BOSTON 3—At Shea Stadium, SRO attendance, 61,822, sunny and cool. It was a day for the defense as the Jets defenders set a record for the fewest total yards allowed in the club's history—80 yards—and the fewest rushing yards ever—23. The defense forced Pat QBs Mike Taliaferro and Joe Kapp into only 5 of 22 and sacked them four times, while Al Woodall was 13 of 22 for 160 yards. George Nock added his best day to date to the offense with 69 yards and two touchdowns, his fourth in three games.

NEW YORK 20, MINNESOTA 10—At Shea Stadium, SRO attendance, 62,333, cloudy and cold. The Jets continued their up-swing, winning their third in a row in impressive fashion, 20-10, over the favored Vikings, who came to Shea with a 7-game win streak. George Nock again led the way with a 117-yard performance and one touchdown as the Jets rushed for an incredible 187 yards against the Purple Gang. The 51 rushes by the Jets were a club record, and the defense chipped in with a performance which allowed only 167 yards and snared four interceptions. Gary Cuozzo, Viking QB, was injured in the first quarter, bringing on Bob Lee who hit 9 of 24 for 126 yards and the Vikings' only TD.

OAKLAND 14, NEW YORK 13—At Shea Stadium, SRO attendance, 62,905, cloudy and cold. An incredible touchdown pass from Daryle Lamonica to Warren Wells with one second showing on the clock brought the Raiders to a 14-13 victory over the Jets, snapping the New Yorkers' winning streak at three. Wells caught the ball while falling into the endzone after it had been tipped by Earlie Thomas to climax a 70 yard drive in four plays and 27 seconds. Oakland took the ball with 0:28 remaining and moved to the Jet 33 on a disputed interference penalty against Thomas. Three plays later Wells' catch won it. The crushing defeat overshadowed a 115-yard rushing game by Emerson Boozer, playing his second game after returning from rib damage.

MIAMI 16, NEW YORK 10—At the Orange Bowl, SRO attendance, 75,099, partly cloudy and warm. Garo Yepremian kicked two field goals in the final two minutes to send the Jets to their second straight loss. The Jets offense was stymied and produced only 86 yards in the second half after going off at intermission tied at 10-10. Yepremian's late kicks, his 2nd and 3rd of the game, nullified Emerson Boozer's second straight 100-yard game, this time a 115-yard performance. Miami's rushing attack produced 144 yards behind the triple threat of Larry Csonka, Mercury Morris and Jim Kiick.

BALTIMORE 35, NEW YORK 20—At Memorial Stadium, SRO attendance, 60,240, clear and cold. The Jets suffered their poorest day statistically on defense, giving up 457 yards, 355 of them on passes, to the Colts as the season came to a dismal end. Earl Morrall, in three quarters of work, hit on 18 of 33 passes for 348 yards and four touchdowns, two of them to Ed Hinton. The Jets were held to their worst day rushing—43 yards—in nine weeks as the Baltimore defense ganged up on Emerson Boozer and George Nock. Despite the 457 yards against, the Jets defense still managed to finish number one in the AFC in total defense and rushing defense.
